ROBBER ESCAPES ACROSS RIVER IN SKIFF--CAUGHT

Knocks Down Farmer With Sandbag and Steals $115
From His Pocket.

Accessory Arrested in This City Confesses to Part.

KERRY SLAYDEN IS VICTIM

After knocking Kerry Slayden, a young farmer residing near Bandana who had come to the city with a load of tobacco and sold it, in the head with a sand-bag, Wood Jones, a well known character to the police, robbed Slayden of about $115 and then skipped to Brookport, where he purchased himself new clothes and started for Carbondale, Ill., but his trip was cut short at Metropolis by Marshal William Wiat. Jesse Edwards was arrested as an accomplice to the robbery. Slayden had about $140 in his pockets, but $35 was left untouched in another pocket.

Slayden had gone to Jackson's foundry, on First street, after a piece of machinery and then went into the alley back of Sam Stark's saloon, on Second street, to prepare his wagon to start home. It is alleged Jesse Edwards and Wood Jones followed Slayden into the alley and Edwards tried to hit him, but failed. Then Jones used the sand-bag, and both began a search through Slayden's pockets. The farmer was stunned for several minutes, but fought the pair as best he could. Slayden made an outcry and persons saw Jones and Edwards escaping from the alley to Broadway. Patrolmen Cross and Johnson were soon on Jones' trail, and followed him to the Illinois Central incline, where Jones gave a negro $2 to pull him across the river. The patrolmen arrived after Jones was in the river, and then they telephoned to Brookport and Metropolis to catch Jones.

Jones went to Brookport and gave his old clothes to a negro and bought a complete outfit of furnishings and bought a ticket for Carbondale. Marshal Wiat met the train at Metropolis and arrested Jones. He agreed to return without requisition papers, and was brought to the city on the Dick Farmer last night.

Patrolmen Johnson and Cross caught Edwards while he was standing watching a religious service at Third street and Broadway yesterday afternoon. He told the patrolmen that Jones beat him to the money and he did not get a cent. He admitted trying to strike Slayden, but says the farmer was a good dodger.

Of the money taken Jones had $53.47 when arrested. When brought in court this morning he resembled a sport, but when the pair were returned to the jail Jones was content to wear a pair of overalls, as all the clothes were given to the farmer and the unsuposed money returned to him. When the pair were presented in police court this morning they waived examination and were held over to the grand jury next April.

Slayden said he had only taken two drinks early in the morning, but he will return to his home in Bandana a wiser man. Slayden's eye was bruised by the sand-bag and several cuts were made on his face.

6,000,000 POUNDS OF TOBACCO IS DELIVERED.

Henderson, Ky., Jan. 23.—By Secretary J. N. Banks, of the Stemming District association, it was reported this morning that 9,128,395 pounds of pooled tobacco have been delivered to association factories in the stemming district.

This city received 5,000,000, as Hopkins, Union, Webster and Henderson counties compose the stemming district.

The Imperial has bought the tobacco, and already received one-fifth of it.

TARGET PRACTICE THREE MONTHS BEFORE SUICIDE

New York, Jan. 23.—May Roberts Clark, who shot and killed Frank Brady and then committed suicide, practiced pistol shooting for three months. Her friends say she expected to marry Brady and that his refusal drove her insane. A diary kept by the woman tells of her love for Brady. It is not known if her hus-

Two Paducahans Claiming Title to One Hundred Thousand Acres of East Tennessee Mountain Land.

H. C. Atwood and Owen Wylie
"Squat" on Top of Walden's Ridge and Inhabitants are Up in Arms Over it.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 23.—There is trouble in the air on Walden's ridge and parties coming down from the heights yesterday reported the whole mountain top was aog with rumors and reports. Walden's ridge had troubles of its own ever since it was a mountain, and there have been feuds, fusses and excitable things innumerable among the residents of this elevated suburb of Chattanooga.

The source of the trouble this time is the presence of two parties who are said to be laying claim to the ownership of approximately the whole mountain top.

The two are Harry C. Atwood and Owen Wylie, who came to Walden's ridge about a year ago from Paducah, Ky. They came quietly and for a long time no one seemed to know just why they came. Within the last month or six weeks, however, it has leaked out, and now they constitute a storm center likely to burst at almost any time. The two said "nothin' to nobody," but quietly proceeded to clear up two patches of ground about thirty acres in extent at Edward's Point and near the Burnt Cabin Springs, and there they proceeded to erect cabins.

The property upon which they have located is owned by the Chattanooga Company, limited, and has been since about 1888. Attention was attracted to the two alleged "squatters" by surveyors who were observed running lines about what will amount to about 25,000 acres of land on top of the mountain. On this land are numerous settlers who have built their homes there, and have resided there for a number of years. Finally someone, no one knows just who, mustered up sufficient courage to inquire what authority the new comers had for taking up all the land they had. The inquisitive one was informed that Atwood's father, grandfather, uncle, great uncle or some other relative, had originally owned the entire top of the mountain, or at least 100,000 acres of it under an old land grant. This land grant had descended to Harry Atwood, one of the two "squatters" who put in an appearance last year.

Having secured the old grant he came here and proceeded to take possession regardless of the fact of the land having been in possession of other owners for more than twenty-one years. If the newcomers establish their rights they will secure possession of the best property on the mountain. T. B. Murray, of the firm of Murray & Murray, attorneys for Atwood and Wylie, stated last night in reply to the question that he knew nothing as to what his clients claimed in the matter, but understood they were basing these claims upon an old grant.

However, the attorneys for the Chattanooga Company, Ltd., have been keeping a watch on the alleged squatters, and it is understood will take any action necessary at the proper time to secure possession of the land.

Some of the residents of the mountain have become very much alarmed over the prospect of being ousted from their homes. Accordingly, as one party expressed it who has recently made a trip through the section affected, "there will likely be a squirrel hunt on the mountain unless the squatters go mighty slow."

Walden's Ridge is a lowly outshoot of the Cumberland mountain, about 2,000 feet high, that is cut off sharply by the Tennessee river in its meanderings through East Tennessee. The part of the ridge referred to lies about four miles north of Chattanooga next to the river, and is covered with woods and full of coal and iron.

OLD MEMBERS DO NOT SEEK REAPPOINTMENT

Mayor Smith has not as yet made his selections for the board of public works, and may not do so for several days yet.

"There is no hurry in the matter," he said today, "and as I am anxious to secure men of the greatest ability and highest character, of course, I shall need a little time for consideration."

The mayor commented on the excellent work the present board has done.

It is not known whether any of the present board will be reappointed, but from reliable sources it is learned that none of the members is very anxious to serve again, as they assume they have contributed their share of work to the city, and some one else may now have the honors, if any, that go with the positions.

The positions are verily thankless ones. Probably as important as any official positions in the city government, they require a great deal of time, and the compensation is hardly anything—$100 a year.

THE WEATHER.

Generally fair tonight and Friday; cold wave. Highest temperature yesterday, 58; lowest today, 27.

HOODOO ENGINE, THAT FIGURED IN THREE ACCIDENTS SENT TO MEMPHIS

SUE TOBACCO TRUST

Louisville, Jan. 23.—From an authoritative source it has been learned that a suit is in preparation for Basil

Doerhofer and the Monarch Tobacco

Works, which he controls, against the American Tobacco company and the Mengel Box company, asking $1,000,-

000 in damages on the charge of consspiracy to ruin the plaintiff's business.

Illinois Central enginemans and roundhouse employees received with great satisfaction the news yesterday that engine No. 2004, which has been in more serious accidents than any other engine handled at Paducah, has been ordered to Memphis to be used on the passenger run between Memphis and Cairo.

According to some of the enginem-men, the big engine is ill fated, and bad luck attends it on every trip.

The engine is the one that turned

WARLIKE ARE PREPARATIONS AT WASHINGTON

All Signs Point to Unusual Pre- parations to be Prepared for Possible War.

Orders for Examination of Sen- ior Class at West Point.

TO BE GRADUATED AT ONCE

Washington, Jan. 23.—Under instructions from President Roosevelt, Secretary of War Taft today issued orders for the meeting of a board of officers immediately in West Point to examine the first class in the United States military academy, so that all of those that are qualified may immediately become officers in the army without waiting for the regular period of graduation.

This order, which had been known in advance in army circles for the past month, follows out the general plan of the government today to make war preparations in time of peace. There has never been a period since the civil war when there was such activity in the army and in the navy.

Powder mills belonging to the government in Delaware will start operations on Monday next, and will run at their full capacity for a considerable period. The so-called powder trust has received a larger order than was given during the Spanish-American war.

The Japanese naval department presumably does precisely the same thing that the navy department in Washington does today, that is, to give out official word that ships are ready to serve again, as they assume they have contributed their share of work to the city, and some one else may now have the honors, if any, that go with the positions.

The positions are verily thankless ones. Probably as important as any official positions in the city government, they require a great deal of time, and the compensation is hardly anything—$100 a year.

Little is known here about the fortifications of Forts in Formosa. The only knowledge possible to get is that Japan has been constructing in two forts fortifications that are without parallel so far as the importance of the island is concerned. Representatives of the United States who have tried to get permission from Japan to visit Formosa have been delayed on various pretexts.

Battleship Mississippi in Commission

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 23.—The battleship Mississippi, constructed at Cramp's shipyards in this city, arrived at the League Island navy yard today from the yard of the builders, and was formally turned over to the government. When the big battleship decked at the navy yard Captain John C. Frazer took command. No time will be lost in fitting the Mississippi for service. More than one hundred apprentices left the Newport training station yesterday for this city, and upon their arrival will be assigned to the Mississippi. A draft of sailors will be brought here for the battleship from the Norfolk navy yard.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL BOBS UP IN HOUSE COMMITTEE

Washington, Jan. 23.—The ship subsidy bill bobbed up in a new form and in a new committee of the house today. It is now known as the ocean mail service bill, and is before the committee on postoffices and post roads. It provides for doubling the pay per mile to steamships carrying ocean mail between this country and Europe and some parts of the Orient and Australia. It was introduced by Representative Humphrey, of Wash-

CONCRETE BRIDGES.

Supervisor of McCracken County Will Give Graves Fiscal Court a Talk.

Bert Johnson, of Paducah, road supervisor of McCracken county, was in Mayfield Monday to talk over the advisability of building concrete bridges in this county. He has had a vast experience in this line and he declares that concrete bridges are a success. They are being used almost exclusively in McCracken county.

VASELINE NO GOOD FOR HAIR.

Dandruff Germ Thrives in It, as Well as in All Grease.

A well known Chicago hair specialist invited the Inter-Ocean reporter to come to his office and see, under a microscope, how the germ that causes dandruff thrives in vaseline. The specialist said that all hair preparations containing grease, simply furnish food for the germs and help to propagate them. The only way to cure dandruff is to destroy the germs, and the only hair preparation that will do that is Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect." Without dandruff no falling hair, no baldness. Ask for Herpicide. It is the only destroyer of the dandruff germ. Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50¢ and $1.00. Send 10¢ in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mass. W. B. McPherson, Special Agent.

Mr. Johnson, at the invitation of Supervisor T. C. Pinson, will visit Mayfield again Friday, 6, when the fiscal court is in session and give a talk on the merits of these bridges to the court and it may be that they will be ordered built as an experiment in this county.

Mr. Johnson has held his position for several years and bears the distinction of being one of the best posted men on good roads in this section of the state. He is a great admirer of gravel roads and says that he can not see why it is that such a rich county as Graves should be so far behind on the road proposition.—Messenger.

NIGHT RIDERS LEAVE NOTES.

Warn Farmers Against Employing Negroes.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 23.—Night riders made their first appearance on the south side of the river near Dover, Stewart county, last night. They invaded what is known as Happy Hollow, and left about fifteen notices to different farmers not to work any more negro laborers. The notices were all written in the same hand and all read exactly, alike. All were tacked upon the gateposts at the front gate.

FULL FORCE

OPERATORS DECLARE UNION MINERS' STATEMENT FALSE.

Claim to Produce Statistics Showing That Strike Has Not Affected Them.

Earlington, Ky., Jan. 23.—The attention of several non-union coal operators in Hopkins and adjoining counties was called this morning to a report sent out from national headquarters of the United Mine Workers at Indianapolis yesterday, which said:

"Among the first things to be considered by the national convention will be the strike in the Hopkins field in Kentucky. It began January 1, and about 2,000 men are out at this time."

Operators interviewed, representing a large majority of the non-union miners in the counties of Hopkins, Christian, Union and Webster, give in detail statistics as to the number of miners employed in the non-union mines of these counties. They state that the total number of men employed to operate the non-union mines of these four counties upon a normal basis with all places filled, is 3,700 and say that practically all these mines are working with full forces and producing normal outputs of coal. The list of men at work, as made up, totals 3,698. In Hopkins county the actual figures obtained are: St. Bernard, 1,500; Relnecke, 225; Victoria, 200; Crabtree, 160; Nortonville, 98, other smaller mines, 250; total, 2,433. The West Kentucky Coal company, operating in Union and Webster, reports a full force of 700 men at work. In Christian county the Empire company has about 125 men, which is a full force. The Oak Hill mine in this county is at work today after a shut-down on account of court proceedings and embarrassments from the union. Other small mines report forces at work which bring the grand total up to approximately 3,700.

WETMORE ELECTED.

Strict Party Vote Makes Him Senator From Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 23.—The state of Rhode Island, after being represented by a single United States senator for the past year, today chose George Peabody Wetmore to succeed himself, his previous term having terminated in 1906. The election was on a strict party vote, Mr. Wetmore, the Republican candidate, winning over Col. R. H. I. Goddard. Five Republicans cast a complimentary vote for Col. S. P. Colton.

SIMPLE WASH CURES ECZEMA.

Itching, Burning Skin Disease Routed Without Use of Injurious Drugs.

Great inventors often have been praised for surrendering the secrets of their discoveries. Practically the same thing has happened in the medical world in the case of Dr. Decatur D. Dennis, the eminent skin specialist of Chicago.

Dr. Dennis, in his own office practice, discovered that pure vegetable oil or wintergreen, properly mixed with other simple remedies was practically a sure specific for Eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, salt rheum, and other itching skin diseases. But the oil of wintergreen alone was found ineffective. It required other mild ingredients such as glycerine and thymol compounded with the wintergreen to produce the real Eczema cure.

This compounded D. D. D. Prescription positively takes away the itch at once—the instant it is applied to the skin. This vegetable liquid does away with deleterious drugs so long used in an attempt to doctor the body, whereas modern science has determined that eczema is first and all the time a skin disease.

If you want to know more about the merits of D. D. D. Prescription, call at our store. We vouch for this remedy. R. W. Walker & Co., Fifth street and Broadway.

Daily Thought.

Modesty is one of the principal ingredients in the composition of a truly great man.

SCHOOL LAW AMENDMENTS.

Nothing will accomplish more at one stroke for the Paducah public school system than reducing the board from an unwieldy body of factions and cliques, representing sections of the city, to a body of five men, chosen from the city at large. It is almost impossible for a large body to avoid taking sides on personal and administrative questions, and when men are elected from wards, some, who seek preference from personal motives, are apt to get on the tickets. When a person has a project to get through, he can see seven members, secure a majority, and ignore the other five, who are bound to resent it. Yet it must be a nuisance, even for the superintendent to have to see so many. Most of the troubles of our school boards in the past would have been avoided, if the boards had been composed of fewer men, closer together, and feeling a direct responsibility for the condition of the schools.

The Woman's club deserves credit for taking this first step to secure changes in the school system. Wisdom is manifested in requiring normal school certificates for teachers and an increased school levy. It would be folly to require teachers to take a normal course, and then pay them salaries, of which we ought to be ashamed. It would be equally foolish to increase the salaries of teachers, who do not take sufficient interest in their calling to make it a profession.

The foregoing amendments to the law are wise; but we cherish no delusions about the plan to require of trustee eligible to hold a teacher's second class certificate. We should rather prefer men, eligible to first class trustee's certificate. All that is required of a school trustee is honest sense, common honesty and a good disposition. But these qualities are scarce enough to make a school board a distinguished body of men.

The superintendant and faculty are supposed to furnish the scholarly attainments and knowledge of pedagogy and allied branches, and the more the trustees permit the superintendant to run the school system, the better they will fulfill the functions of the board. A teacher's second class certificate would not enable them any better to judge of the merits of the superintendant's theories. We should have to bring their requirements up on a par with his, plus experience, to do that.

The school board is a business board, and it must look after the financial end of the school system. True, it elects the superintendant and teachers, but neither the possession of a normal school certificate by the teacher, nor eligibility for a teacher's second class certificate on the part of the trustees, will enable them to judge the relative ability of applicants. Only two people know that—the superintendent and the principal.

There are more changes, however, which would be valuable. The superintendant should be relieved of the petty details of the business administration. A permanent secretary, capable of looking after those matters, would add greatly to the efficiency of the school work.

Then, too, the proposed amendment to the school law, leaves the qualifications, the same as those for councilman. Those qualifications, without reason, prohibit some of the best men from serving on a school board. For instance, officers of public service corporations, operating under franchises, or members of concerns having contracts with the city, are ineligible for councilmen and aldermen. Now, it may be we cannot trust our fellowmen in matters involving adversely their patriotism and public obligations and their allegiance to their clients and stockholders; but the same reasoning does not apply to school boards. We prohibit representatives of public service corporations sitting on a board, but wink at the presence of attorneys for book concerns.

The proposed qualification, eligibility for a teacher's second class certificate, will not hurt the schools, but it may hurt the chances of the other amendments going through, and the fact is, that all the troubles in Paducah's school boards has been caused by people capable of holding teacher's second class certificates.

Hughes' tacit entry into the presidential race makes the situation more interesting, and the quiet strength of the masterful man of Albany will be watched by the other aspirants. In spite of the charge that Hughes is backed by the Wall street crowd, that hates Roosevelt and Roosevelt policies, Hughes' support in many quarters will be spontaneous and honest. He will be satisfactory to those, who admire Roosevelt's policies, but do not like his academic discussion of public questions and his method of putting forward every issue on its moral significance. Hughes does things without talking; but we doubt, whether Hughes could have been a political possibility without the awakening of the moral sense of the people by Roosevelt and we are quite sure the most implacable enemies of Roosevelt, are those speculators and stock manipulators of New York, whose emergency currency proposition, was denounced by the class of bankers, that represent the commercial and industrial interests of the country.

School Trustee Karnes is to be congratulated on selecting for the new Rowlandtown school building a name from literature instead of politics.

WHAT THEY SAY
ABOUT PADUCAHANS

The Courier-Journal says:

"Mr. Bryan and Senator Campbell met after the speaking in the dining room of the Capital hotel. Mr. Bryan walked over to where Senator Campbell was sitting and shook hands with him. They talked for a few minutes and Mr. Bryan said that he was anxious to know more about the conditions which brought about the deadlock and the conditions in Kentucky. He asked Senator Campbell to write to him and tell him what are the reasons for not electing Beckham to the senate. Senator Campbell promises to write to him fully on the subject, and Mr. Bryan said that he would reply.

"The letter will not be written for several days, however, as Senator Campbell wants time to prepare the letter carefully. Mr. Bryan said to Senator Campbell: 'Don't elect a Republican,' and Senator Campbell said they did not intend to elect a Republican.

"Mr. Bryan came to Kentucky to urge the election of Mr. Beckham, it was given out by Beckham followers, but in the speech which he made he dwelt almost entirely on the necessity of sending a Democrat to the senate so that one more vote for needed legislation could be secured."

The Louisville Evening Post says: "Representative Graves, of Paducah, has been entertaining a number of friends from his home city for a few days. All of them are well known Democrats, and they came to endorse his stand on the senatorship. Among those here were Magistrates C. W. Emery, John Thompson, G. R. Broadfoot, County Attorney A. W. Barkley, F. H. Gholson and J. J. Bleich. These gentlemen, especially those who are magistrates, are interested in the proposed measure taking from jailers the responsibility of caring for the court house."

The Times says: "Senator Wheeler Campbell, of Paducah, one of the members who is leading in the fight to prevent Beckham's election to the United States senate, received a telegram from Gov. J. C. S. Blackburn, of the Panama canal zone, indorsing his stand. The message reads: 'Have always been proud of you, but now more than ever.'

Conspirators Arrested. St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—A dispatch from Kiev reports the arrest there of a man and woman who have just arrived from Geneva, Switzerland, with a plan for the general distribution of arms and ammunition in Russia. The authorities captured also a considerable quantity of weapons.

Patrons Were Neglected. Chicago, Jan. 23.—Failure to present two patrons with Christmas presents of bottles of whisky resulted in a quarrel which ended in the killing of Henry Wieskenski, a saloonkeeper and a trustee of Hammond, Ind. He was shot by George Pollas and Tony Liscula, who were arrested.

Then, too, the proposed amendment

CHAPTER X.

Up creek the three negroes fled, past other camps, to where the stream branched. Here they took to the right and urged their horses along a forsaken trail to the headwaters of the little tributary and over the low saddle. They had endeavored to reach unfrequented paths as soon as possible in order that they might pass unnoticed. Before quitting the valley they baited their heavy horses and, selecting a stagnant pool, scoured the grease paint from their features as best they could. Their ears were strained for sounds of pursuit, but as the moments passed and none came the tension eased somewhat, and they, conversed guardedly.

"No. It's too late to get aboard—the last tender is on its way back," he informed him. "If you want to go to the 'outside,' you'll have to wait for the fleet. That only means another week, and—there she blows now." A ribbon of white mingled with the velvet from the steamer's funnel, and there came a slow, throbbing, farewell blast.

Glenister forced his lathered horse down to the beach and questioned the longshoremen who hung about. "Quick, you men!" he cried to the sailors. "I want the lightest dory on the beach and the strongest oarsmen in the crowd. I'll be back in five minutes. There's a hundred dollars in it for you if we catch that ship."

He whirled and spurred up through the mud of the streets. Bill Wheaton was snoring luxuriously when wrenched from his bed by a disheveled man who shook him into wakefulness and into a portion of his clothes, with a storm of excited instructions. The lawyer had neither time nor opportunity for exposition, for Glenister snatched a valise and swept into it a litter of documents from the table.

"Hurry up, man!" he yelled, as the lawyer dived frantically about his office in a rabbit-like hunt for items. "My heavens, are you dead? Wake up. The ship's leaving." With sleep still in his eyes, Wheaton was dragged down the street to the beach, where a knot had assembled to witness the race. As they tumbled into the skiff, willing hands ran it out into the surf on the crest of a roller. A few lifting heaves and they were over the bar with the men at the oars bending the white ash at every swing.

"I guess I didn't forget anything," gasped Wheaton as he put on his coat. "I got ready yesterday, but I couldn't find you last night, so I thought the deal was off."

"Say, Dex, I am going to marry that girl."

"I dunno if you be or not," said Dextry. "Better watch McNamara."

"What?" The younger man stopped and stared. "What do you mean?"

"Go on. Don't stop the horses. I ain't blind. I kin put two an' two together."

"You'll never put those two together. Nonsense! Why, the man's a rascal. I wouldn't let him have her. Besides, it couldn't be. She'll find him out. I love her so much that—oh, my feelings are too big to talk about." He moved his hands eloquently. "You can't understand."

"Um! I s'pose not," grunted Dextry, but his eyes were level and held the light of the past.

"He may be a rascal," the old man continued, after a little. "I'll put in with you on that, but he's a handsome devil, and as for manners he makes you look like a logger. He's a brave man too. Them three qualities are trump cards and warranted to take most any queen in the human deck—red, white or yellow."

"If he dares," growled Glenister, while his thick brows came forward, and ugly lines hardened in his face.

In the gray of the early morning they descended the foothills into the wide valley of the Nome river and filed out across the rolling country to the river bluffs where, cleverly concealed among the willows, was a rocker. This they set up, then proceeded to wash the dirt from the sacks carefully, yet with the utmost speed, for there was serious danger of

COOPER MET USUAL SUCCESS IN PITTSBURG

Received Thanks From Hundreds While in the Smoky City.

The following article, taken from the Pittsburgh Press, describes the results of L. T. Cooper's visit to that city, and the effect of his new preparation as told by people who had become convinced of the soundness of Cooper's theories with regard to the human stomach.

Cooper believes that the human stomach in civilized races has become greatly weakened. He claims that most ill health of the present generation is due to this fact. The article is as follows:

"L. T. Cooper is meeting with the same astonishing success in Pittsburgh as in other cities. For the past few days many thousands of Pittsburgh people have called at his headquarters to talk with him.

"Cooper's prophecy, made upon his arrival, to the effect that before he left Pittsburgh thousands would realize that his theory is correct and would come and thank him for what his medicine had done, is rapidly being borne out.

"On Monday an astonishing number of people called to express their gratitude to Mr. Cooper. Judging from what some of these people had

THAW'S MOTHER ENDS TESTIMONY

Trial Rapidly Drawing to a Close.

Teacher Tells of Harry as a Lad of Six—Comstock Tells of Appeal From Defendant.

HARRY THAW'S EARLY LIFE.

New York, Jan. 23.—The end of the second Thaw trial is fast approaching. This was indicated when Dr. Charles G. Wagner, the first of the defense witnesses to be called by the defense, took the stand for his preliminary examination.

Mrs. William Thaw, the mother of the defendant, had completed her testimony.

The kindergarten teacher who had charge of Harry Thaw as a lad of six, also testified, and the day marked a long stride toward the conclusion of the case.

Mr. Comstock's testimony had to do with Thaw's appeal to him to assist in closing up the houses where Stamford White was alleged to have maintained elaborately furnished apartments and where young girls had gained seven pounds since she began taking the medicine. She feels splendid and looks very much better. If any one doubts this statement, he would be pleased to have them call at my house and verify it."

Woman's Club Seeks to Have Charter of School Board Amended Some Way.

The Woman's club has submitted the following communication to Mayor Smith:

At the last meeting of the Educational department Friday, January 10, a committee was named to draft some changes in the school laws for cities of the second class, to be submitted to Mayor Smith and his committee on charter amendments at an early date. Mrs. Rudy, Mrs. Wheeler, Dr. Caldwell and Mrs. Overby, committee, recommended the following changes:

Article 9 of the Charter—Section "Said board shall prescribe the control of a board, to be styled the 'Board of Education,' consisting of two trustees from each ward, be changed, to read "Consisting of five trustees to be elected by the voters at large of the city for a term of four (4) years."

See 5. Said board shall prescribe the branches of education to be taught, the necessary qualifications, mode of examinations and the number of teachers to be annually admitted to each school, etc., changed to read,

"Said board shall prescribe the branches of education to be taught, and the number of teachers qualified by the necessary Teachers' and Normal Training School Certificates to be annually admitted to each school, and they shall fix the boundaries of the districts within which children shall be admitted to each school; but the majority of said board may permit children residing in one district to attend school in another. They may establish high schools and fix a grade of public schools, and prescribe the rules by which pupils may pass from one grade to another, and from the grade to the high school. They shall establish in the graded schools courses of training in the manual and practical arts and prescribe the branches of instruction therein. Said board shall annually in the month of January approximately ascertain the amount of money necessary to be used to defray the expenses of maintaining the schools, etc. The general council shall at the request of said board levy and collect such taxes as may be requested. Provided, That such levy shall not in any one year exceed 35c on each $100 valuation, and 10 cents of each $100 valuation additional for sinking fund purposes."

Section 19 changed to agree with section 1.

Section 22. All persons possessing the qualifications required by this act make them eligible to election as members of the board of councilmen shall be eligible to membership in the board of education etc., changed to read:

"All persons possessing the qualifications required by this act to make them eligible to election as members of the board of councilmen and also such educational qualifications as to make them to hold a teacher's second class certificate shall be eligible to membership in the board of education etc."

Respectfully submitted,

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD.

If Old Sores were due to outside influences, or if the cause was confined strictly to the diseased flesh around the ulcer, then external treatment and simple cleanliness would cure them. But the trouble is in the blood, which has become unhealthy and diseased, and keeps the sore open by continually discharging into it the impurities and poisons with which the circulation is filled. This poisonous condition of the blood may be the remains of some constitutional trouble; the effect of a long spell of sickness; or because the natural refuse of the body, which should pass off through the proper avenues, has been left in the system and absorbed into the blood. Again, the cause may be hereditary; but it does not matter how the poison becomes entrenched in the blood, the fact that the sore will not heal is evidence of a deep underlying cause. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may cause the place to seal over temporarily, but the blood is not made any purer by such treatment, and soon the old inflammation and discharge will return and the sore be as bad or worse than before.

S. S. S. goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, cleanses and purifies the blood, and makes a permanent cure. S. S. S. enriches and freshens the circulation so that instead of dispersing the crowd, it carries rich, tissue-building, flesh-healing blood to the diseased parts and in every way assists in a natural cure of the sore. TO PREVENT SCRAPING.

Farmer Puts Up Sign Marking Lettuce Bed.

Maysville, Ky., Jan. 23.—A pointer that shows how the feeling is in this year on the raising of tobacco this year, and that there is a determination on the part of some to see that none is raised if it can be prevented, came to light by a farmer in a prominent Equity neighborhood, who fully believes there will be trouble should anyone attempt to make a tobacco plant bed. This particular farmer desired to have some early lettuce, and he accordingly made a large bed, planted the lettuce seed and then had it covered with the regulation tobacco canvas. Several days after it had been planted and fixed he thought that someone might take it for a tobacco bed, so in order to set things right he got a pot of black paint and made the following sign on the canvas in large black letters: "This is a lettuce bed."

People soon forgot the good advice you hand them, but they never forget the other kind.

This woman says that sick women should not fail to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she did.

Mrs. A. Gregory, of 2355 Lawrence St., Denver, Colo., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was practically an invalid for six years on account of female troubles. I underwent an operation by the doctor's advice, but in a few months I was worse than before. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to perfect health, such as I have not enjoyed in many years. Any woman suffering as I did with backache, bearing-down pains, and periodic pains, should not fail to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Be it enacted by the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky:

First.—That there is created a board of bank examiners, which shall be composed of two competent and suitable persons, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, and who shall be selected one from each of the two political parties casting the highest vote in the general state election.

During each regular session of the general assembly one state bank examiner shall be so appointed, who shall hold office for four years from the first day of May following his appointment and confirmation by the senate.

Each state bank examiner shall visit and examine annually, or oftener if required by the secretary of state, every state bank, savings bank and every combined bank and trust company organized under the laws of this state, in the presence of one or more of its officers, to ascertain whether it has been managed according to law; he shall have power to make a thorough examination into all of its affairs, and, in doing so, to examine any of its officers or agents on oath, and shall, without delay, make a full report of the condition thereof to the secretary of state.

A state bank examiner shall not impair any information of the examination made by him, except so far as may be necessary in the performance of his official duties.

The state of Kentucky is divided into two state bank examiners' districts, one of which is called the eastern district and the other the western district, and which districts, respectively, shall correspond with and include the same counties constituting the eastern and western Kentucky state normal school districts, and the secretary of state shall prescribe the order in which each bank examiner shall examine the institutions in said two districts; but no institution shall be twice examined, in succession by the same examiner, unless so directed by the secretary of state.

No officer of any bank, savings bank or trust company, or combined bank and trust company shall be eligible to hold the office of, or act as state bank examiner, and if any state bank examiner becomes indebted to any bank, savings bank, trust company or combined bank and trust company chartered under the laws of this state, or shall become interested in the safe of securities as a business, or in the negotiation of loans, for others, his office shall become vacant.

Recovered Lands.

The interior department has recovered in one year 2,372,223 acres of public land claimed under fraudulent entries or unlawfully fenced in. That is evidence enough that the government is not pursuing a false trail or using trumped-up accusations in its general prosecution of fraudulent entry cases.—New York Tribune.

The right kind of a man doesn't go around boasting that he is right.

NEW LAW

The new law passed by congress forbidding railroad operators working more than nine hours a day has created a demand for about 30,000 more telegraph operators than can now be secured. Railroad wires are to be cut into the Telegraphy Department.

GREEN TAG SALE

It would be hard to express the pleasure which we are receiving from the open-handed support which men of the city are giving this Second Annual Green Tag Sale. It not only indicates that Paducahans are keen for a bargain, but it shows conclusively what a powerful lever forty years of square dealing constitutes, in drawing trade.

It's "clean-sweep" orders during this Green Tag Sale. We mean to move the stock if lowest-level prices will do it—and we believe they will. Study the ad, read the prices—and then apply the final test—SEE THE GOODS.

New York Board of Aldermen Prohibits Smoking in Public Places.

New York, Jan. 23.—Women will not be permitted to smoke in New York restaurants and other public places. This question was definitely settled, for the present at least, by the board of aldermen when an order was directed against women smoking in public places was adopted. Tacit permission had been given for women to smoke in several of the Broadway restaurants since New Year's eve, when the proprietor of one of the well-known restaurants first suspended the order against it.

Women seldom play a game unless there is a deeper game beneath it.
